

BATTLE-DAYS

By Wayne Visser

in the battle-days ahead i need strength i don't feel, in the midst of weakness i need faith i don't hold, in the midst of doubt i need courage i don't possess, in the midst of fear i need hope i don't see, in the midst of despair i am fighting a 100-day war without any armour without any plan b

without knowing
if love will survive
