

DOVE ON THE WIND

By Wayne Visser

If you were a dove
I'd be the wind

The wind you so enjoy to journey with
The wind which rides with you to great heights

The wind which blows on your face
And reminds you that you are indeed
Free

copyright 1988

